

Are you frustrated with your daily travel at the moment?

- Does it limit what you can do?

- Does it impact negatively on your life?

If so, we would like to invite you to participate in our research study that is generating ideas for changing people's daily travel.

Participating will involve a short online survey to help the research team pick a range of people to take part.

If you meet our criteria, you will be asked to complete a further online survey and will be invited to take part in a 1-to-1 creative discussion with our researcher based on your survey responses at Loughborough University's School of Design and Creative Arts. This session will last approximately one and a half hours. You will receive an Amazon voucher as a thank you for taking part in the full study.

If you are interested, please contact Dr Stuart Cockbill (s.cockbill@lboro.ac.uk) for a link to the preliminary survey and more information.

We look forward to hearing from you.
